Mon-Resident Notice. No. 1231, N.R.-In the Chancery Court Memphis, Tennessee, - Eliza Muler vs. Rethere were very much pleased with her Juliana in the "Honey-moon," which was the programme for the occasion.

There was a targer andience at the Theater last night than is usual on Saturdays. The attraction was "King Rene's Daughtor," a piece well calculated to call out the peculiar charms as an acress, of Mrs. Siddons, The argument of this play runs briefly: Johanthe (Mrs. Siddons), daughter of Kong Rene (Mrs. Siddons), daughter of Kong Rene (Mrs. Siddons), daughter of Kong Rene (Mrs. Davis), is born blind. Her other has ber educated, so far as he can, in every sense but that of which she is deficient. (bund fristan (Ellis) meets her in the happy valley, wherein she has found a home, falls in
